Curriculum or Enrichment Offered	Yes	Our curriculum follows the best practices of the National Association for the Education of Young Children (NAEYC) and is inspired by the Reggio Emilia philosophy. Students learn language, writing, science exploration, math skills, music, creative expression, and art through daily experience in groups and with one on one interaction with their teachers.
Discounts Available	Limited	Limited tuition assistance is available
Additional Information: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> At St. Thomas Early Learning Center, we believe play is the work of childhood. We structure our day, classrooms, and outdoor spaces to provide for exploration and discovery. Through these experiences our children work on self-regulation and social skills, understanding physical properties of materials, developing thoughtful questions, and discovering the process of creating something new. We value childhood and the experiences of our children.
