WHAT?
Provides “named peril” coverage which includes but is not limited to:
- Fire
- Windstorm
- Vandalism
- Hail
- Lightening
- Theft
- Smoke
- Water Damage

WHY?
- Renter’s insurance is inexpensive
- Neighbors = greater risk of damages
- Renter insurance provides liability protection which often covers damages that result from bodily injury or property damages to another person

HOW?
- Contact a local vendor to address all your renter’s insurance needs

Housing vendors are not responsible for your personal items in the event of damages. Protect yourself!

Check with your family insurance company to see if they offer renter’s insurance and if not consider:
- All State Insurance
- Anco Insurance
- Farmer’s Insurance
- Germania
- Jones and Lowe
- National Insurance
- Safenet Insurance
- State Farm

Did you know?
1 pair of tennis shoes
Average coffee habit
Average fast food habit