Volunteer Application 2013-2014

Thank you for your interest in volunteering with the Women’s Resource Center at Texas A&M University. The WRC’s mission is to pursue equity and enhance the campus climate for women through visibility, advocacy, support, and programming. The Center advocates by educating campus and community constituencies on women’s issues and functions as a resource and referral center. The Center strives to ensure a community in which women and men and work together in a mutually respectful, safe, and supportive environment where equality, responsibility, and personal empowerment are encouraged and fostered.

Name: _______________________________ Date: ____________________________

Local Address: ___________________________________________________________

Phone: ___________________ Email: __________________________ Have you liked us on Facebook? [ ] yes [ ] no

Previous volunteering experience: _______________________________________________________

How did you hear about the WRC? _________________________________________________

Volunteer Preferences (please indicate which of these opportunities you are interested in):

• Programming support during the Spring Semester:
  o Women’s Leadership Forum (March 6, 2014) – support needed for the full day ______
  o Denim Day (April 23, 2014) – support needed 3 weeks before through April 25th ______
  o Walk a Mile (April 15, 2014) – supported needed in the afternoon and evening ______

• Graphic Design: creating and improving graphics and marketing materials (immediate need) ______

• Public Relations / Campus Outreach: Help us market our events, represent the WRC at Resource Tables, get the word out about the WRC, and share information about our programs and services (on an as needed basis)._____

• Photography: We are updating our website and marketing materials and need new photographs to promote WRC events

(Short-answer questions on back)
1. Please tell us why you want to be a volunteer in the community and for the WRC:
___________________________________________________________________________________________
___________________________________________________________________________________________
___________________________________________________________________________________________
___________________________________________________________________________________________
___________________________________________________________________________________________

2. Hobbies/Interests/Skills: _____ Writing _____ Public Speaking _____ Photography ______ Editing
       _____ Graphics/Art _____ Computer Knowledge _____ Other: _______________________________________

3. What are your interests related to women’s issues and the work of the Women’s Resource Center? (you can read more about our programs on http://wrc.tamu.edu):
___________________________________________________________________________________________
___________________________________________________________________________________________
___________________________________________________________________________________________
___________________________________________________________________________________________
___________________________________________________________________________________________
___________________________________________________________________________________________

Please e-mail the completed application to Sonia Mahabir (soniam@studentlife.tamu.edu), Assistant Coordinator of the Women’s Resource Center or drop off a hard copy in Cain Hall C-106.

Thank you for your interest!

If you are interested in peer education and interpersonal violence prevention consider applying to Student Anti-Violence Educators. Interested in promoting Women’s Leadership? Apply to Aggie Women In Leadership!
Applications for both are available online or by request.