Women's Resource Center
DIVISION OF STUDENT AFFAIRS

WELCOME TO BRYAN-COLLEGE STATION!

HOWDY!

The Women's Resource Center would like to welcome you and your family to Aggieland! The Bryan-College Station community is far more than just a college town; our community features attractions, recreation facilities, and resources that make Aggieland a great place for you and your family to call home.

This guide highlights many of the family friendly services available in the Bryan-College Station community. The businesses and activities in this guide are not endorsed by Texas A&M or the Women's Resource Center, and are for information purposes only. We hope that this information is useful and will allow you and your family to enjoy all that Aggieland has to offer!

The Women's Resource Center is glad you have decided to call the Bryan-College Station community home. Please contact our office if there is anything we can do to assist you or your family!

CHILDCARE

POSSIBLE WARNING SIGNS

These signs, if observed during a facility visit or after the child is in the facility's care, could be a signal that a child care facility may not be the best fit for a child.

- The staff avoids or does not answer questions.
- Parents cannot be involved in child care practices.
 - Child speaks of problems or is not happy.
- Activities are not planned and children are left to entertain themselves.
 - There are not enough toys for the children to play with appropriately; this causes fighting over the toys that are present.
 - Adults speak in negative ways.
- The adults caring for the children do not seem interested in the children.
 - You feel uncomfortable in the facility.
 - The caregiver has lied or stolen from you.
 - Your child is unsupervised.
- Your child becomes moody, withdrawn or has difficulty sleeping.

If concerned, you can report abuse to:
www.dfps.state.tx.us/child_protection
